CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curriculum Design and Development

1.1.1 - Curricula developed and implemented have relevance to the local, national, regional and global developmental needs which is reflected in Programme outcomes (POs), Programme Specific Outcomes(PSOs) and Course Outcomes(COs) of the Programmes offered by the University

The curriculum of the majority of programmes has been adopted by PatnaUniversity to address the global, national and local needs, which include poverty alleviation, elimination of gender and social inequities, ensuring food security and focusing on issues of agriculture, health and nutrition, environmental sustainability, climate change, water and sanitation and quality education. Unemployment and economic backwardness of the state can be taken as two specific local problems. Different programmes of the university address these needs as revealed in Programme Outcomes, Programme Specific Outcomes and Course Outcomes. Programme Outcome: At the end of the Programmes, students develop aptitude, skill and ability for employment, research, critical thinking, political consciousness, and awareness of issues related to women empowerment, inclusive education and environmental sustainability. Programme- Specific

Outcomes: Different programmes equip the students with knowledge and skill related to the subject area of the programme. Course Outcome: All courses prepare students with knowledge of diverse aspects of the subject concerned. All programmes include courses that sensitize students to the local, national, global and local needs and problems. Some address new areas of research and build capacity for employment.

1.3 - Curriculum Enrichment

1.3.1 - Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability into the Curriculum

Patna University has always been dedicated to sensitizing students to socially, professionally, and ethically relevant issues for their holistic development. Over the years, it has introduced several self-financing programmes which centre on the topics of gender sensitization, environment, human values and skill development. Syllabus revision has also been undertaken from time to time to integrate value-added courses across different programmes. Subjects like gender sensitization, environment sustainability, human values and professional ethics were included as core units in all four semesters of all post-graduation programmes. In the new CBCS syllabus introduced in 2018, the Ability Enhancement Compulsory Courses (AECC) included the subjects of gender sensitization, environment sustainability, human values and professional ethics. The different programmes within the streams of Humanities and Social Sciences have courses which deal with the environment, gender issues, human values and ethics. A separate Gender Sensitization Cell has also been constituted at a centralised level in the University to deal with gender-sensitive issues and to instil the value of gender equity among the students. In order to sensitize students about environmental and sustainability issues, several academic activities like seminars, workshops, guest lectures and field excursions are organized for students at regular intervals.

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - The institution has stated learning outcomes (generic and programme specific)/graduate attributes which are integrated into the assessment process and widely publicized through the website and other documents

The Learning Outcomes are integrated into the assessment process. These learning outcomes aim at creating and developing the student's aptitude and capacity for Employment, Research, critical thinking, etc.

Assessment:

- The knowledge and skill that students acquire in their subject, and also their capacity for critical thinking, are evaluated through Continuous Internal Evaluation and End Semester Examinations.
- The interest and aptitude for research can be estimated by the larger number of candidates appearing for NET/JRF and Patna University Pre-Ph.D. tests, and the number qualifying in these examinations is evidence of their research capability.
- The number of alumni of the university who qualify in various competitive examinations, or are employed in various organizations attest to the accomplishment of employability.
- The level of achieving the outcome of Women's Empowerment and Inclusive Education is excellent considering the large number of women students in the University.

The mechanism for communication: Ordinance/ Regulations, Syllabus, and other information regarding all programmes including their course content and learning outcomes are displayed on the University Website.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

Patna University took appropriate measures to ensure gender equity during the current year 2021-22. Womens Study Centre in different departments focuss on gender development etc. International Womens Day is celebrated every year on March 8 to promote women participation and upliftment in every field., Students are taught Gender Sensitization as part of their AECC course in few departments.

We ensure safety and security of our students especially girl students in every possible way. Orientation courses and counselling sessions are being regularly held for newly admitted and as well as regular students which help in understanding their role in nation building. For additional protection of girl students, separate common room is been maintained in departments where female students can easily stay, rest and study in their free time.

7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the Institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within 200 words) Solid waste management Liquid waste management Biomedical waste management E-waste management Waste recycling system Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

The University is very cognizant in generating waste. Waste generated is recycled by passing through a system that enables the material to be reused. This ensures that less natural resources are spent.

Moreover, the waste is segregated at each level and source, and is collected at designated time intervals. The waste is compiled in the dustbins (Green and Blue) provided at various places. The dustbins are emptied in movable containers/dustbins and is taken to the dumping yard provided by the University. The University has authorized vendor who collects the waste from the designated place, segregate them, recycles them and disposes them at the landfills authorized by the government.

Organic waste generated from places like canteen is recycled and used as organic manure. Trimmed grasses are used as direct green fertilizer.

Students in few departments are taught 'Solid waste management' as their DSE paper.

Waste water lines from toilets and bathrooms are connected with municipal drainage mains.

Waste generated by electronic equipments such as Computers, Phones, Printers, Fax and Photocopy machines are recycled properly. Non working switches, electric cables etc are stored and discarded properly. Efforts are made to reduce the generation of e waste as much as possible.

Part B

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curriculum Design and Development

1.1.1 - Curricula developed and implemented have relevance to the local, national, regional and global developmental needs which is reflected in Programme outcomes (POs), Programme Specific Outcomes(PSOs) and Course Outcomes(COs) of the Programmes offered by the University

The curriculum of the majority of programmes has been adopted by PatnaUniversity to address the global, national and local needs, which include poverty alleviation, elimination of gender and social inequities, ensuring food security and focusing on issues of agriculture, health and nutrition, environmental sustainability, climate change, water and sanitation and quality education. Unemployment and economic backwardness of the state can be taken as two specific local problems. Different programmes of the university address these needs as revealed in Programme Outcomes, Programme Specific Outcomes and Course Outcomes. Programme Outcome: At the end of the Programmes, students develop aptitude, skill and ability for employment, research, critical thinking, political consciousness, and awareness of issues related to women empowerment, inclusive education and environmental sustainability. Programme- Specific Outcomes: Different programmes equip the students with knowledge and skill related to the subject area of the programme. Course Outcome: All courses prepare students with knowledge of diverse aspects of the subject concerned. All programmes include courses that sensitize students to the local, national, global and local needs and problems. Some address new areas of research and build capacity for employment.

2.6.1 - The institution has stated learning outcomes (generic and programme specific)/graduate attributes which are integrated into the assessment process and widely publicized through the website and other documents

The Learning Outcomes are integrated into the assessment process. These learning outcomes aim at creating and developing the student's aptitude and capacity for Employment, Research, critical thinking, etc.

Assessment:

- The knowledge and skill that students acquire in their subject, and also their capacity for critical thinking, are evaluated through Continuous Internal Evaluation and End Semester Examinations.
- The interest and aptitude for research can be estimated by the larger number of candidates appearing for NET/JRF and Patna University Pre-Ph.D. tests, and the number qualifying in these examinations is evidence of their research capability.
- The number of alumni of the university who qualify in various competitive examinations, or are employed in various organizations attest to the accomplishment of employability.
- The level of achieving the outcome of Women's Empowerment and Inclusive Education is excellent considering the large number of women students in the University.

The mechanism for communication: Ordinance/ Regulations, Syllabus, and other information regarding all programmes including their course content and learning outcomes are displayed on the University Website.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

Patna University took appropriate measures to ensure gender equity during the current year 2021-22. Womens Study Centre in different departments focuss on gender development etc. International Womens Day is celebrated every year on March 8 to promote women participation and upliftment in every field., Students are taught Gender Sensitization as part of their AECC course in few departments.

We ensure safety and security of our students especially girl students in every possible way. Orientation courses and counselling sessions are being regularly held for newly admitted and as well as regular students which help in understanding their role in nation building. For additional protection of girl students, separate common room is been maintained in departments where female students can easily stay, rest and study in their free time.

7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the Institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within 200 words) Solid waste management Liquid waste management Biomedical waste management E-waste management Waste recycling system Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

The University is very cognizant in generating waste. Waste generated is recycled by passing through a system that enables the material to be reused. This ensures that less natural resources are spent.

Moreover, the waste is segregated at each level and source, and is collected at designated time intervals. The waste is compiled in the dustbins (Green and Blue) provided at various places. The dustbins are emptied in movable containers/dustbins and is taken to the dumping yard provided by the University. The University has authorized vendor who collects the waste from the designated place, segregate them, recycles them and disposes them at the landfills authorized by the government.

Organic waste generated from places like canteen is recycled and used as organic manure. Trimmed grasses are used as direct green fertilizer.

Students in few departments are taught 'Solid waste management' as their DSE paper.

Waste water lines from toilets and bathrooms are connected with municipal drainage mains.

Waste generated by electronic equipments such as Computers, Phones, Printers, Fax and Photocopy machines are recycled properly. Non working switches, electric cables etc are stored and discarded properly. Efforts are made to reduce the generation of e waste as much as possible.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe one best practice successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual

Eco friendly Campus:

The University has various initiatives for anEco-Friendly campus, like -

1. Conservation of National Aquatic animal "Gangetic Dolphin". The researchers have created awareness through education and interaction among fishermen, students, policymakers, and administrators besides general public through different modules.
2. University has embarked on a plantation drive spread over 100 acres of its campus including its Saidpur Campus. The campus has green landscaping of plants which covers around 25 percent of the area. The variegated cropping of more than 2500 plants has established us as an eco-friendly campus. In few departments, herbal gardens are also present. Students also participate in campaigns like Plantation Drive, Conserve native species etc.
3. Rooftop solar photovoltaic power projects help in conservation of non- renewable energy.
4. The University has four solid waste disposal facilities in various parts of the campus for the disposal of organic wastes. It is segregated from non-recyclable and inorganic waste. This allows University to make use of organic waste to create compost, which gets utilized for the plantations. The University is planning to use this for revenue generation.
5. Compulsory courses on Environment sustainability and Swacch Bharat Abhiyan in Semester I of all Post Graduate programs helps students to understand the importance of environment in a better way.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Highlight the performance of the institution in an area distinct to its priority and thrust (within a maximum of 200 words)

Integrated structure: Patna University is a Teaching University. It is not an affiliating University. It has integrated structure in undergraduate and post-graduate teaching. College teachers are promoted as Professors and, even become Dean of various Faculties. They also supervise Ph. D. scholars. The students of colleges therefore get the benefit of being taught by a wide range of teachers. We work as cohesive unit in all areas of sports, cultural and other social activities.

Free Education to women: Our thrust is on free women's education to enhance the participation of women in higher education.

Enhancement in employment generation: Our priority is to run employment generating self-financing Programmes (like Master of Business Administration, Master of Computer Application, MA(Personnel Management and Industrial Relations), MSc(Biotechnology), MSc(Environmental Science), Master of Journalism and Mass Communication, MA(Rural Studies, Rural Management and Development), MA(Women's Studies), PG Diploma in Clinical Psychology, Master of Library Information Science, PG Diploma in Industrial Safety Management etc.) for producing employable human resource in specific fields. They not only provide knowledge and skill for employment but also create capacity for self-employment.

7.3.2 - Plan of action for the next academic year

1. To provide seed money to the faculty members of the University after due consideration of the research project proposal submitted by them. For this, a separate cell called "Research and Development Cell" has already been constituted.

2. To provide fellowship to the non-NET PhD research scholars for pursuing their research in regular mode.

3. To promote ICT enabled teaching in all departments by providing them high speed internet connections through fibre optics to be installed by ERNET, India as an initiative of Government of India. The work has already started.

4. To update Patna University website in a manner such that all research related data like publications, registered candidates etc are available easily on it.
